About the speaker:

"When all other lights go out, He still shines!" This became the anthem to Marie's life when on October 2, 2006, her then-husband made a decision to hold an Amish schoolhouse hostage, forever changing life as she knew it. It is her testimony, forged while moving through unthinkable circumstances, into the unfathomable love of the Father. On her darkest day, Marie simply chose to believe that HE IS. Her act of faith radically propelled her into a future she could not have hoped for or imagined.

In the years since God continues to unfold his beautiful plan of redemption over her family. Marie tells a story of forgiveness, healing, and the restoration God has done in her life. She is living proof that God can bring beauty out of brokenness, and she loves to share that message with others.

Marie and her husband, Dan, live in Lancaster County, PA, with their 6 children. Marie is passionate about adoption and shares this through her ministry. She graduated from the School of Ministry (Christ Community Church, Camp Hill, PA) in 2012, and is currently studying Psychology and Theology at Immaculata University.
